How are you doing?

If you, or your family are having a hard time at the moment, you are not alone. There are many ways to get help.

How to keep your child safe

Young people may be spending a lot more time online. Do you know who your child is talking to?

For online safety advice for children and parents visit www.thinkuknow.co.uk

If young people see something criminal online (or offline) they can report it 100% anonymously at www.fearless.org

Mental health

Social distancing and isolation will be hard for many people. For tips on mental wellbeing and to access specialist support locally visit www.healthysurrey.org.uk/mentalwellbeing

You can also get help from Mind. Visit www.mind.org.uk, call 0300 123 3393 or text 86463.

If you, or someone you know is in crisis visit www.samaritans.org or call them on 116 123.

Young people who are feeling particularly anxious or depressed can visit www.kooth.com

At home shouldn't mean at risk

If you are feeling frightened in your home because of someone's behaviour, the Surrey Domestic Abuse Helpline is open 9am to 9pm, 7 days a week; 01483 776822 or visit www.surreyagainstda.info

If you are in immediate danger call the Police on 999. If you can't talk out loud the police operate a Silent Solution, call 999 and then press 55.

Children and young people who don't feel safe at home can get help from Childline, call 0800 1111 or visit www.childline.org.uk
