

Working Scientifically

Throughout their science education, children continually develop a set of essential 'working scientifically' skills. The following skills are embedded across all topics and year groups:

Asking questions

Recording data

Planning

Presenting data

Predicting

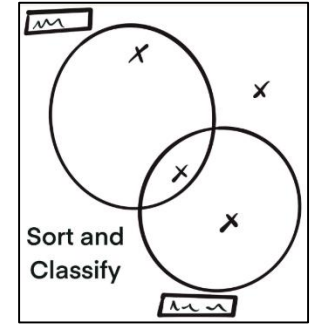

Drawing conclusions

Observing Measuring

Evaluating

N.B. Evaluating is KS2 only