360 sports education are continuing with our boys Football After School Club for girls in Years 5 & 6 every Friday on the school field at St Alban's Catholic Primary School run by Mr Herbert and Miss Swing. The Club is suitable for girls who are interested in taking part in football for maybe the first time. Each week a different aspect of the game will be introduced through innovative and fun games, which are enjoyable for all. Each session will include small sided games to develop game understanding using portable goals.

Reasons to join 360:

Gain a better understanding of the game Improve skills and techniques to apply in matches. Meet new friends and have fun. Play in a safe learning environment. Improve health and fitness in line with the Physical Education guidelines. Register once, then no need to provide details each term.
