Monday - John 12:12-13

The next day the great crowd that had come to the festival heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem.

So, they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, shouting,

“Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord—the King of Israel!”

Tuesday - John 13:4-5,12-15

Jesus got up from the table, took off His outer robe, and tied a towel around Himself. Then He poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples’ feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around Him.

After He had washed their feet, He said to them, “Do you know what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord—and you are right, for that is what I am. So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet. For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you.”

Wednesday – John 16:5-7,13

But now I am going to Him who sent me. It is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send Him to you.

When the Spirit of truth comes, He will guide you into all the truth; for He will not speak on His own, but will speak whatever He hears, and He will declare to you the things that are to come.

Thursday – Mark 14:32-38

And He said to them, “I am deeply grieved, even to death; remain here, and keep awake.” And going a little farther, Jesus threw himself on the ground and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from Him. He said, “Abba, Father, for you all things are possible; remove this cup from me; yet, not what I want, but what you want.” He came and found the disciples sleeping; and He said to Peter, “Are you asleep? Could you not keep awake one hour? Keep awake and pray that you may not come into the time of trial; the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

and carrying the cross by Himself, Jesus went out to what is called The Place of the Skull, which in Hebrew is called Golgotha.
